Hang Xue

Title: L-functions, special values and positivity

Abstract: I will start from the basics of the Riemann zeta function and its positivity properties. I will then move on to other examples of positivity of L-functions and explain its relation with period integrals. The talk culminates in some recent developments on this subject.